Communications were received and referred to appropriate Boards and Committees as follows: From the Board of Church Extension, Board of Trustees, from Smith and Lamar, Epworth League Board, Board of Education and Sunday School Board.

The following resolution was offered by J. W. Harris and adopted:

"Whereas, much valuable time has heretofore been consumed in hearing a detailed report from each preacher of his year's work, since the real results of the work done is fairly represented in the printed minutes, we deem that the time consumed in giving these detailed reports could be more profitably employed if given to the consideration of the interests of Missions, Education, Church Papers and other important matters that come before us. In view, also, of our evangelistic services consuming our evenings thereby preventing our considering these interests at the evening hour, we therefore request our Bishop, if he feels that he can legally and conscientiously do so, to omit these detailed reports.

"E. G. B. MANN,
"J. W. HARRIS,
"C. H. GREER,
"W. F. TAYLOR."

The following resolution offered by C. A. Tague was adopted: "Resolved, That no public collections except for emergencies be allowed at this session of our conference, the question of emergency to be decided by majority vote of the Conference.

ing persons: Price Turner Smith, Joseph Barnet Harris, Robert Napoleon Bush, William Robert Johnson and John Edward Moss, traveling preachers.

(Signed.) J. H. McCOY.

Danville, Ky., Sept. 9, 1912.

The names of G. W. Young and C. F. Evans were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Supernumerary Relation.

The following Boards submitted their reports which were adopted: The Epworth League Board, the Joint Board of Finance, the Board of Church Extension and the Sunday School Board. (See Supplement.) The report of the Bible Society Board was submitted, and on motion it was recommitted with instructions to leave out the recommendation that an assessment be made on the Conference for the American Bible Society. Thus modified, the report was again submitted and adopted. (See Supplement.) E. L. Southgate and E. H. Pearce asked that the following protest be spread on the minutes: "Solemnly and in the fear of God and the love of His Sacred Word, we protest against the action of the Conference in declining to make an assessment for the American Bible Society.

"E. L. SOUTHGATE,
"EUGENE H. PEARCE."

The following resolution offered by W. E. Arnold was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Assistant Secretary, J. B. Harris, be instructed to edit, publish and send out the Minutes of this Conference, and that all funds collected for the publication of the Minutes be turned over to him for this purpose.

"W. E. ARNOLD,

The Conference requested the Bishop to appoint G. V. Todd, Field Editor of the Central Methodist-Advocate.

The following resolution offered by E. G. B. Mann and others was adopted: Whereas, the evangelistic services during this Conference under the leadership of Revs. C. F. Wimberly and H. C. Morrison, have attracted such large congregations and produced so much spiritual good, therefore; Resolved, That we express to these brethren our appreciation of their labors, and request also that the pastor in charge and presiding elder of the district in which our next annual session shall be held, arrange to have evangelistic services there under the leadership of some proper preacher, whom they shall select, but not to use the evenings that may be desired for anniversaries.

(Signed.) E. G. B. MANN,
M. S. CLARK,
J. J. DICKEY,
J. S. SIMS,
R. M. SMITH,
C. C. FISHER.

A resolution was offered providing for the appointment of a committee to consider the matter of memorializing the next General Conference to grant women the rights of the laity as follows: "In view of the fact that some of our women are seeking the rights of laity and that they propose asking the Kentucky Conference next fall to memorialize our next General Conference that it give them said rights and also that we are not sufficiently prepared for intelligent vote upon a memorial that proposes to make such radical changes in our church laws: Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the chair at this Conference to make a thorough study of all the facts involved and the probable results that would follow the enactment of such a law or laws and report the same to our next Annual Conference.

(Signed.) LEONIDAS ROBINSON,
T. W. WATTS,
B. C. HORTON.

A division of the house being called for, the resolution was adopted by a vote of 66 to 26. J. R. Deering, T. W. Watts and E. L. Southgate were appointed to act as this Committee.

Committees on Temperance, Orphans' Home, Sabbath Observance, Books and Periodicals, Parsonage Furnishing, Laymen's Movement and District Conference Records, submitted their reports and they were adopted. (See Supplement.)

The Committee on Conference Relations submitted the following, which was adapted: "Your Committee on Conference Relations recommend the following for the superannuate relation: M. P. Morgan, M. W. Hiner, E. J. Terrill, W. T. Rowland, George Froh, J. M. Johnson, J. R. Peeples.

The time of the Conference session was extended.

The following resolution of thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas, The most cordial welcome has been extended to the members and visitors at the Conference session, therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That we express our appreciation of the generous hospitality given us by the good people of this beautiful city. The hearts and homes of the citizens of Danville of all churches have been open to us and we will carry with us greatful memories of the kindness extended us. We further express our appreciation of the courtesy shown us in the use of the pulpits of the various churches of the city.

(Signed.) J. R. SAVAGE,
O. J. CHANDLER,
C. K. DICKEY.

T. W. Watts offered the following which was adopted: "Resolved, That Thursday night of the next Conference session be fixed as the time for the Anniversary of the Preachers' Aid Society.

(Signed) "B. C. HORTON,
"W. W. BALL,
"J. W. HARRIS,
"J. A. SAWYER,
"M. S. CLARK."

B. C. Horton and others offered the following resolution of sympathy with Bishop E. E. Hoss who is ill: "We have heard with much sorrow of the affliction of our beloved friend and brother Bishop E. E. Hoss. We extend our sincere sympathy to him and his, and shall beseech the great Head of the Church for his speedy restoration to health and strength, that he may take his wonted place among us, and in the ongoing of our great church. The Secretary of the Conference is hereby requested to send this resolution to Bishop Hoss and family

(Signed.) "B. C. HORTON,
"E. G. B. MANN,
"C. C. FISHER."

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The Conference business was suspended until a session of the Legal Conference could be held. (See Minutes of Legal Conference in the Appendix.) Business was then resumed, and a collection was taken to supplement the sum collected for the publication of the minutes amounting to $29.22, making a total of $301.34.

The minutes of this session were read and approved. Hymn No. 393 was sung, and calling Question 49, "Where are the preachers stationed this year?" the Bishop read the following list of appointments and the Conference adjourned sine die.

Memoirs

REV. F. W. NOLAND.

By Rev. W. F. Taylor.

Many hearts and homes are made sad by the death of Rev. F. W. Noland, a member of the Kentucky Conference, at Nicholasville, Ky. He was the son of Rev. Stephen and Amanda Miller Noland, and was born on July 24, 1843. His childhood was spent in Irvine, Ky., and he moved to Nicholasville when he was about nine years old. He entered the Confederate army in 1861, serving in the Command of Gen. John H. Morgan. He was captured in Morgan's Ohio raid and was in prison in Chicago until the close of the war. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Nicholasville on October 4, 1866; was licensed to preach on February 9, 1867; ordained deacon by Bishop Pierce in 1868 and elder by Bishop Kavanaugh in 1869, sharing the benefits of the legislation of 1866 with reference to ordination. He was married on December 4, 1873, to Emma L. Doty. On account of physical disability he took a supernumerary relation in 1890 and became a partner in the bank of Noland, Wilmore & Sears, founded by his father in 1864. In 1901 he sold his interest in the bank and bought an interest in the J. D. Hughes Lumber Company, but for the past six years he had not been engaged in active work.

Brother Noland's home influences in his childhood and youth were of the very best. His father was not only a gifted preacher, but a wise man in his views of life. His mother, a sister of Justice Miller, of the Supreme Court of the United States, was a woman of beautiful Christian character, whose example and teaching and prayers left a wonderful impress on the son. While he never got entirely away from these influences, there was a time in his early manhood when they did not give promise of safeguarding his life. Entering the army at the age of eighteen, the four years of gallant service left him with a harder fight in becoming a soldier of the cross. His conversion was remarkable. At a fair in an adjoining county with some companions there suddenly and with great power came to him the conviction, "I am not living a worthy life," and the announcement to them of his purpose immediately to consecrate himself to God. He started at once that Saturday evening for home, and the next morning found him at the altar of the church with his father in charge of the service, and the surrender was made.

Brother Noland soon felt that he was called to the ministry. It seemed to be one of his characteristics to decide even the most important matters promptly. The call was accepted, and in four months he was preaching the gospel. From the very start he gave promise of exceptional ability and great usefulness.

One of his rules was the most thorough preparation for the pulpit, and to this he adhered through life. Soon after he entered the Conference, Justice Miller wrote him: "Will, be careful. A gift of gab has ruined many a speaker." And he was wont to say of himself to his intimate friends: "One success in an off-hand talk at prayer-meeting is liable to give me a failure in the next sermon or two, and then I learn again that it cannot be done in that way." A diligent student of the best book, his reading was largely on lines that would contribute most to the efficiency of his preaching.

His sermons were practical and scriptural. There was no straining after novelty, no effort to invent new theories. They dealt with the real things of life. Though usually topical in form, they gave a true exposition of the text and made a vital application which it was difficult to ignore. Perhaps few preachers excelled him in clearness and compactness of statement. No one had difficulty in understanding his meaning. He had special gifts in preaching to children and young people. It was often said of him: "He can put more in thirty minutes than any man among us." He was proficient and successful in evangelistic work, and his services were often sought for sermons and addresses at college commencements.

Brother Noland excelled as a pastor. He was a leader of men in the financial affairs of the church; wise and tactful in dealing with old and young; systematic and diligent in visiting the homes of his people; systematic and helpful in ministering to those in sorrow. He loved the work of the ministry, and never was out of it by choice. For years his deafness made it difficult and embarrassing to him. After the Sunday's labor he suffered intensely with nervous headache. His heart became involved and made continuous labor dangerous. In his retirement he had an abiding faith in God and love for his church and people. As a member of the congregation during the four years of my last pastorate his constant presence at the Sunday service and prayer meeting when he could not hear a word, not even the organ nor the singing, was an inspiration to me. Speaking to him of his helpfulness he would say: "I am trying to bear witness by my presence." Religion with him was a matter of principle. He had a fixed purpose in all conditions to serve and honor God. Is it any wonder that he was popular and successful? Serving such churches as Milton, Georgetown, Winchester, Newport, Millersburg, Versailles, Shelbyville, Lexington, Mt. Sterling and Covington, I believe any one of them would have desired a longer pastorate.

He had long anticipated the end and had expressed the hope that he might not have a lingering illness. On the morning of March 15, 1912, after a good night's rest and a hearty breakfast, while superintending some work in his own yard, he passed suddenly away, apparently without the slightest pain. He is survived by his faithful and loving wife and their four children: Mrs. Amanda N. Willis, Mrs. Nancy N. Mosely, Mr. Stephen D. Noland, of Nicholasville, and Mrs. Mary N. Holloway, of Lexington. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. L. Southgate, D.D., assisted by Revs. J. W. Crates and J. M.

Fuqua. The body was laid to rest in the family lot in Lexington, Ky. May the blessing of God rest richly on the bereaved family.

REV. T. BENTON COOK.

Sunday, June 23, 1912, was a beautiful morning on which we laid to rest in Maple Grove Cemetery at Nicholasville, Ky., the mortal remains of T. Benton Cook, who was born March 23, 1842, and died June 21, 1912. He had been a remarkably robust man through a long course of years. His health had been such that he served his church uninterruptedly throughout the many years of his itinerant career. He was ill but a few days prior to his death—from Tuesday until Friday. On each of those last days he was up and about, and had just returned from a stroll down town on the afternoon of his decease. His death was due to an impaired heart action. His wife attempted to wake him as he lay on his couch to give him medicine, but the soul had slipped its cable by which he was moored to things earthly, and he had gone to join the company of the spirits of just men made perfect. Thus quietly and peacefully did he leave us.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's Joy.

"His sword was in his hand,
Still warm with recent fight;
Ready that moment at command
Through rock and steel to smite."

His childhood and early years were spent amid the scenes of his nativity in Jessamine county, and his name is honorable among the associates of his early life. From a life-long friend and close intimate comrade, we learn that "he entered the service of the Confederate States in September, 1862. His company, acting independently, left Kentucky with the rear of Gen. Bragg's army, and went into camp at Knoxville, Tenn. They were ordered to report to Gen. Humphrey Marshall at Abingdon, Va., and were consolidated with another incomplete company from Grant County, Ky. At this time T. B. Cook was elected 2nd lieutenant and later he was promoted to 1st lieutenant and adjutant of the regiment, in which capacity he served until the close of the war. He was in active service under Generals Bragg, Johnson and Hood in all the engagements of the army of Tennessee. Adjutant Cook proved himself a competent officer and fearless soldier. He was twice wounded. T. Benton Cook was respected and loved by his comrades of all ranks. He was known to be without fear, at times, even to rashness. He was in spirit unconquered, and unconquerable, and when he believed himself to be in the right uncompromisingly true and loyal to every conviction of duty, and right."

The same unswerving loyalty which characterized his military career was manifest in his itinerant ministry.

Bro. Cook embodied many estimable characteristics. Who can forget his love of music? He was in harmony with the symphonies of earth and heaven. To him his Saviour's praise was embodied in the inspiring and majestic hymns of the church.

"Soldier of Christ well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

He was a man of unusual general information and indomitable will. He was noted for punctuality and fidelity. He was not a "reed shaken by the wind," but true to his convictions, and firm in their maintenance. He had that quality of inflexibility which set in the wrong direction is to be deplored, but set in the right direction is worthy.

He loved the children and labored for their entertainment, instruction and salvation. At recent conferences, district and annual, of his own initiative, he appointed and conducted children's services. The children have been seen to cluster around him, and cling to him. To be thus near and dear to the heart of childhood is a Christ-like attribute and assures a youthfulness of spirit despite the accumulation of years.

T. Benton Cook joined the Kentucky Conference in 1868; since which time he served various charges and was at one time presiding elder. He was a good man, a faithful itinerant, and heroic soldier of the Cross. He loved his fellowmen, his church and his God. His chronicled history is written on the pages of the Kentucky Conference Minutes; his name is endeared in the hearts of many; the influence of his life and labors is incorporated into many a living monument; his record is on high and his reward is with God. He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

Besides brothers and a sister, his wife and two daughters, Lucy Alma and Catherine, survive him. May the richest benedictions of heaven abide upon the devoted wife and affectionate daughters, sharers in his itinerant experiences, and may the hand of a loving heavenly Father guide and protect them amid the vicissitudes of earthly life and conduct them at last to the home on high:

J. W. CRATES.

Nicholasville, Kentucky.

NANCY ELIZABETH GARDINER.

Nancy Elizabeth Gardiner, daughter of Isaac Newton and Sarah James Whitaker, was born in Harrison County, Kentucky, April 2, 1863. Died at Burnside, Kentucky, October 1, 1911, aged 48 years, 5 months and 29 days. She was married to J. W. Gardiner October 21, 1880, and to them were born four sons, Rev. E. H. Gardiner, of Hillsboro, Ky.; R. W. Gardiner, of Frankfort, Kentucky; James N. Gardiner, of Vanceburg, Kentucky, and George W., who died in infancy. The three surviving sons are all honorable, upright business men, and the eldest is a local preacher in the M. E. Church, South.

Mrs. Gardiner was brightly converted in a meeting held by Rev. H. P. Walker, D.D., at Benson Chapel, in 1883, though she had been a member of the M. E. Church, South, from childhood. Her life from the time of her conversion to its close was consistent. She was an help meet indeed to her husband as an itinerant Methodist preacher, always going cheerfully with him to whatever work was assigned, and doing all that she could to make it as easy as possible for him to succeed in his ministry.

She was a devoted mother. She loved her husband, she loved her children, she loved her home and church. One of the most appropriate statements made concerning her Christian life was that made by Rev. W. H. Hopper, of the Presbyterian church, at a memorial service in the Methodist church at Burnside: "Her life was not a ripple on the surface, but a deep undercurrent."

Her father, Isaac Newton Whitaker, was one of the strongest Christian characters in Harrison county. Her grandfather, Simeon Whitaker, was a local preacher of great usefulness, and a brother of the Rev. Josiah Whitaker, of the pioneer days of Methodism in Kentucky. No itinerant preacher ever had a truer, purer, nobler wife. At the last she said, "My work is done, and I have nothing to do but to go home."

MRS. DR. C. F. EVANS.

The death of Mrs. Mary Lewis Evans was a shocking thing to even her most intimate friends, although her health had not been good for several years. Since last September she had suffered severely, but had continued bravely at her domestic duties and was seen in her place at church just two weeks before her death. This mournful event happened Monday, January 15, 1912, at 3 o'clock in the morning. Being painless, it was comforting to the anxious watchers. It was the earthly end of a long, laborious, peaceful and happy life and is deeply deplored by the family, church and community in which she was so influential and sincerely loved.

The funeral service was held in her own home and led by Rev. Dr. E. L. Southgate and the writer, January 17, 1912, in presence of a host of sorrowful friends and kindred, among whom were our resident preachers and those of other denominations. These preceded her casket to the grave where, under a covering of beautiful flowers, it was left to rest in the snow-decked lawn of our sleeping friends.

Sister Evans was born in Fayette County, near Lexington, and passed here the sixty years of her amiable and useful life, save three periods of her husband's pastorate in the nearby cities, Versailles, Maysville and Carlisle.

Whilst yet a girl in her teens she became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and as a Christian was true to her vows through all her allotted years. She was an intelligent and worthy worker, an inestimable blessing to many pastors and an invaluable assistant to her noble husband.

When still a very young woman she gave her hand to a Lexington merchant, Mr. Benjamin Roberts. With him she walked in happy and loving accord for about ten years. To them God gave two precious girls, Margaret and Mary—the first of whom remains with us—the lovely companion of a devoted husband—Mr. Leonard G. Cox. Left when only thirty a widow, she looked for help to God and courageously determined to live and to love and train her daughters—to nourish and cherish, too, the children of an only brother and of her deceased sister and so fit them for honorable places and careers. This was her self-appointed task for eighteen lonely years. That it was well done none can deny. Her home was theirs also, and her thought, time, means, prayers, care and love were lavishly given to qualify them for future success and happiness. The home of Sister Roberts was very attractive. It manifested order, neatness, taste, culture, contentment and refinement. Few young persons have had such beautiful environment, such excellent social and religious advantages, with such tender care as she bestowed on those of her household. Her wise counsel, Christian example, motherly heart and guiding hand will have a rich recompense beyond this vale of tears.

Over thirteen years ago, Dr. C. F. Evans wooed and won Mrs. Mary Roberts. She was united in marriage to him during his term as pastor of the Methodist Church in Versailles. I believe the step was divinely directed. Like her first venture, this was a heaven blessed union. The congenial couple were perfectly mated. She was his other self and she his better half. They lived for each other—a helpful, devoted, blissful and united life. She completed the happiness of the gifted preacher and wonderfully enhanced his usefulness. Rarely has such an event brought such joy and nuptial satisfaction in such perfect measure to two whole families. And she became a foster-mother to a circle of orphans and made her husband a beloved parent to her own fatherless daughter. These honored her and he in turn cherished Margaret.

Mrs. Eyans was one of the first members of the Missionary Society and at times its main-spring, its vital force. In Sunday School she was a valued teacher, ever solicitous to advance her pupils.

She was ever a judicious friend of her pastors. Her home was open to them, her servants and carriage were at their call. Their families, too, shared her kind regard. She lightened their load and cheered their lot. In pastoral duties she was a wise assistant. Sister Evans was long corresponding secretary and later the treasurer of her society. She kept securely their moneys and often went from house to house to collect them.

Her manner was pleasing, her mind practical, her spirit independent, her judgment sound, her example worthy. In the last thirty years few women have exerted a more wholesome influence. Home making was her delight. She kept a wide open one for her kindred, minister, nieces, nephews, and neighbors. There was a cheering, comforting and refining impression left upon all who entered it. Now the house is desolate! Its light is gone out!

"Thou art gone to the grave—but we will not deplore thee;
Whose God was thy ransom, thy Guardian and Guide;
He gave thee: He took thee, and He will restore thee;
And death has no sting, for the Savior has died."

JOHN R. DEERING.

MRS. SUSAN FLORENCE BOSWELL.

Susan Florence Boswell, nee Moore, was born in Shelby, County Ky., August 14, 1871; departed this life Saturday morning, March 9, 1912. She was the sixth child in a family of ten children. Her father, and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Moore, four sisters and two brothers survive her.

She was united in marriage to Rev. George W. Boswell, at her home church, Olive Branch, September 26, 1894, her uncle, Rev. T. J. Godbey, officiating. She was devoted and faithful in all the important relationships of the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher.

She was converted sometime after her marriage during a protracted meeting conducted by Rev. W. J. Harney. She was quite reserved and unpretentious in her religious life, but very genuine. She had the spirit of Christ and her gentle bearing made a good impression everywhere she went. It was my privilege to spend two or three weeks in her home last fall while engaged in a protracted meeting in Mt. Carmel Methodist Church, and I received the impression that she was well nigh, if not quite, a model wife and mother. Her faith did not fail her when she needed it most, for when her husband asked her, during her last illness if her trust was in the Lord she indicated unmistakably that it was.

She and her husband seemed quite congenial and happy together. Seven children were born to them. Two of them, Jefferson Hiner and Jennie Elizabeth, died young. R. T., Cleora Geneva, George Wallace, Mary Cathleen and Martha Juanita survive. They are bright, splendid children, but quite young to be left in the world without a mother's constant love and care. The oldest is about fourteen and the youngest five years of age. The father is left with a heavy responsibility upon him, but he is devoted to his children and his mother is there to assist him in training and caring for them.

Sister Boswell died in the parsonage at Mt. Carmel, Ky., where her husband is pastor, and no one ever had more tender care and interest shown in time of sickness and death than was shown toward her and her family by the noble, refined people of that town. Every effort was made for her recovery, but it seemed that the Master wanted her, and her husband bowed to the Divine will and had the fortitude to say: "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Rev. C. A. Tague, of Flemingsburg, and Rev. Emil Bauman, local pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Mt. Carmel, held brief religious services at the parsonage before the remains were removed to Shelbyville.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer in the Methodist Church at Shelbyville, Ky., in the presence of many sorrowing relatives and friends. From the church her body was borne to the cemetery in that same city and gently laid away.

E. G. B. MANN.

MRS. ETHEL BOYS WILLIAMS.

This good woman rests. On July 16, 1912, the Lord touched her eyelids, and gave His beloved sleep. The world is dark and lonely for the bereaved husband and son, but heaven is nearer and the ties that bind them to the better world are stronger than ever before. The parting is only for a time, then the glorious reunion on the other shore.

Ethel Boys was born in Fleming County, Kentucky, April 11, 1878. She was the daughter of Allen T. and Lizzie Clark Boys, and it was her lot to spend her girlhood in a Christian home. As a consequence, she united with the church while only a child and was happily converted when seventeen years of age. At a later date she professed the experience of entire sanctification, and only a few days before her death she testified to having the assurance that this great work was done.

On the 8th of October, 1896, she was married to Rev. W. M. Williams, now pastor of Tollesboro circuit. To them was born one child, Oscar, who, together with the bereaved husband, survives and mourns a mother's loss. Sister Williams was a devoted wife and a fond mother, and was preeminently a home-maker; always neat and orderly, industrious and frugal, affectionate and clinging, and all who know what the presence of such a woman means to a home will know how to estimate the loss of this husband and son.

Sister Williams had been in delicate health for several years, but always exhibited a cheerful and joyous spirit. She was frank and open in conversation, sometimes seemingly abrupt, but seldom making an enemy. She knew how to go directly to the heart of any matter in hand. Religiously, she "grew in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus" during the last years of her life. Owing chiefly to her ill health, she hesitated for some time about going into the itinerant ministry, but when she yielded, she tried earnestly to make a true Methodist preacher's wife. Only a few days before her death she testified to the assurance of her acceptance with God and to her readiness to go whenever her Master called. To those who loved her best the way will be lonely without her, but they can solace themselves with the hope of meeting again in their father's house above.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

With profound gratitude we acknowledge the greetings of two hundred and fifty-eight (258) missionaries from distant fields, namely, China, Korea, Japan, Brazil, Mexico and Cuba, and note with deep interest that the opportunities in all these fields are so extraordinary and the demands made upon them by the forces that are reconstructing and redirecting these old civilizations are so tremendous that our faithful men and women break down in body and spirit under the strain of service and anxiety, they can hold their forts but the command is to advance. May God move the heart of our beloved church to sustain our missionaries in their respective fields according as He has prospered us.

We also note with great pleasure the fact that our Missionary Board at Nashville is giving the church a widespread proclamation of the facts regarding the missionary enterprises. A superb body of missionary information is today at the command of every preacher or layman who wishes to use it; a well-organized and church-wide program of missionary education.

We rejoice to be able to report an increase on collections for missions over that of last year; that new territory has been entered in our home field; new missions have been formed, and the outlook for our work in our Missionary District is very encouraging.

We desire to thank Dr. E. H. Rawlings, representative of our Board of Missions, for his earnest and inspiring message to the Board of Missions. May it be abundantly fruitful.

We recommend:

First. That all our pastors use the plan provided by our Discipline in securing funds to meet our obligations in the great missionary enterprise.

Second. That we strive with all diligence to secure collections from every member.

Third. That Missionary Institutes be held at earliest convenience in each Presiding Elder's District.

Fourth. That our Epworth Leagues make special offerings for our Cuban Mission.

Fifth. That the Living Link offering be observed by our Sunday Schools.

Sixth. That the assessment with a surplus be raised on each charge.

Seventh. That intercessions be made without ceasing for divine help in the consummation of all our plans.

Eighth. We nominate J. B. Harris as Conference Missionary Secretary.

The following appropriations were made for the year 1912-1913:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.

The Committee on The Laymen's Missionary Movement beg to report as follows:

Whereas, There is seemingly less activity among the laymen of our conference than was manifest one or two years ago, still we feel encouraged by the fruitage of previous endeavor as evidenced:

First, In the establishment of our mountain district (Jackson), which is as complete in its plans and operation, and strong in its personnel, covering the territory as thoroughly as the other districts of our conference, an objective much desired and earnestly coveted for many years.

Second, In the payment in full and more of our appropriation for our home mission work, so that we begin the new year with a surplus in the treasury:

Third, By a continued interest in our foreign missions, as shown by the maintenance of several native workers by some of our laymen, and through their influence and inspiration by some of our Sunday Schools.

Fourth, By a contagion of interest, as shown by quite a number of our laymen in various branches of endeavor, such as the sending (and going without being sent) of a goodly delegation to our great missionary conference to be held at our new Southern Assembly June, 1913.

We heartily endorse the plan of our Mission Board in requesting our presiding elders to select lay delegates to this missionary conference, and we urge the delegates so named in this Conference to do all in their power to attend this great missionary gathering.

We also commend the organized movement on the part of a number of the laity and ministry of our church to establish a place that will meet the growing need of the church for Conference, Training, Rest and Recreation, and to that end advise the investigation of our Southern Assembly, Lake Junaluska, near Waynesville, N. C., which we hope to see completed in 1913.

We also respectfully continue our request to our presiding elders to so arrange their District Conferences that the second day in each conference may be known as Laymen's Day, and that the dates for holding these District Conferences follow one another in such wise as to permit the attendance of our connectional secretaries and other church officers with the least expense and loss of time.

We submit to this Conference the following named brethren for officers for the ensuing year:

Conference Leader, W. W. Ball; Conference Vice Leader, R. M. Smith.

We also report to the Conference the election of the following:

District Leaders, Covington District, Rawlins D. Best, Covington; Danville District, M. M. Dossett, Burgin; Frankfort District, H. A. Power, Paris; Jackson District, H. H. Smith, Hindman; Lexington District, H. C. Campbell, Nicholasville; Maysville District, Luther Feeback, Carlisle; Shelbyville District, W. S. Hays, La Grange.

Respectfully submitted,

RAWLINS D. BEST, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

We desire, first, to record our heartfelt gratitude to our divine Master for the measure of success granted this year to the work committed to our management. A growing appreciation of the value of this agency of the church is shown by several facts. First, the demands made upon the resources of the Board are the largest perhaps of any year in the three decades of its history. Applications for aid have come from not less than ten churches making request for an aggregate of $4,000 in donations and $1,200 in loans.

We do not take this chorus of struggling churches begging for help as indicating a wish to shirk burdens they themselves should bear, but rather the assurance of an aroused interest on the part of our people. Each of these requests for aid is accompanied by a pledge on the part of the church to raise many times the amount asked for. If we were able to grant all the aid requested the Conference would be greatly enriched and the borders of our Zion enlarged.

Information is the secret of inspiration. When our people know of the work of Church Extension—what has been done and what they can do through it—they will be inspired to give. We beg all our pastors to help spread this information among the people. The Church Extension Handbook is brim full of such valuable knowledge. Folders, leaflets, pamphlets, maps and charts setting forth the work, can be had in any quantity without cost by writing to the general office in Louisville. Some of these tracts are as entertaining as a novel and will interest young and old alike.

The Loan Funds for Church Extension are attracting many who have money to consecrate to the Lord. The plan is so simple and so safe and so paying that it is sure to attract others.

The Sunday School Loan Fund being provided by the use of birthday jars grows encouragingly, but ought to be helped by all our Sunday Schools. The little glass birthday jar is furnished by the General Board free of charge to any Sunday School that will use it.

The Washington City Representative Church appeals to our patriotism, to our denominational pride and to our zeal for the Master's kingdom among the representatives of our Southland at the nation's great federal capital. If we have a mission to the rich as well as to the poor we owe it to ourselves and to our Lord to provide this representative church. Let every member know the purpose of it and be given the opportunity to contribute something if only the price of a brick.

We are glad to report an increase over last year of $215.25 in the aggregate contributions for Church Extension in our Conference. We trust the time has passed forever with us when brethren discriminate against contributions for this important work. Money can be put to many good uses, but B. P. Morrison says if you want to put money where it will do more good than anywhere else put it in a Church Extension Loan Fund.

Grants have been made by your Board at this session as follows:

To St. Luke's Church, Covington .....	$ 500 00
To Furgerson, Pulaski County .....	200 00
To West Liberty, Morgan County .....	800 00
To High Street, Somerset .....	200 00
To Boyer's Chapel, Letcher County .....	100 00
To Park Ave., Lexington .....	300 00
To Epworth, Lexington, Parsonage .....	200 00
To Jackson, Breathitt County, Parsonage .....	400 00
Total .....	$2,700 00
To Wilmore Church, Jessamine County, a loan of.....	$1,000 00

The assessment by districts for the ensuing year is as follows:

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We take pleasure in reporting with regard to the Vanderbilt University, that according to statement of year's work from the Dean this has been the best year in the history of the Institution. We recommend that our young men, preparing for the ministry, avail themselves of the opportunity thus afforded them of laying deep and broad foundations for their ministerial life and work.

We commend the work that is being done for our colored people through Payne College.

We are also advised that the Correspondence School has passed beyond the experiment stage and is a decided success as a permanent institution. More young ministers have taken the courses this year than ever before, and we earnestly urge all our undergraduates to take the course.

The statistics of our Kentucky Wesleyan College are as follows:

Teachers . . . . .	8
Students . . . . .	140
Value of property . . . . .	$100,000 00
Notes . . . . .	58,654 17
Bank stocks . . . . .	6,200 00
Cash . . . . .	2,340 76

Total endowment . . . . .	$ 67,194 93
---------------------------	--------------

We recommend that the sum of $5,000.00 be assessed on the Conference for Conference Education.

We recommend that the Conference approve the following recommendation for classification of Kentucky Wesleyan College: "We, trustees of Kentucky Wesleyan College, in legal session June 3, 1912, hereby make application to the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to place Kentucky Wesleyan College in class "B." We have examined the requirements of the Educational Commission for "B" class colleges, and believe that Kentucky Wesleyan College fully meets them. For a detailed statement of the equipment, standard and requirements, see statistical report for the year ending June 4th, 1912.

(Signed.) 'J. L. CLARK, President of the College,
"JOHN R. DEERING, Ch'm. of the Board,
"J. P. STROTHER, Secy. of the Board."

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF KENTUCKY WESLEYAN COLLEGE.

We rejoice in the faithful service of our new president, Rev. J. L. Clark, who has demonstrated during his first year his fitness of the responsible task intrusted to him.

He has rejoiced in the sympathy and co-operation of his brethren in the ministry and the laity. This is necessary if we are to succeed in our great educational enterprise.

Besides our president we have a well equipped faculty among whom there has been the most perfect harmony during the year.

We regret to report a small decrease in attendance this year which is due not to local conditions but rather to state-wide influences affecting especially denominational schools. It behooves the Methodists of the Conference to be more loyal to the Conference Institution. Each pastor is requested to become a solicitor for the college, notifying the president of prospective students.

Let each pastor preach on Christian Education, according to disciplinary requirement. It would be well to observe educational day in each church and Sunday School, presenting the cause of Christian education to both church and Sunday School. While no special revival services were held this year in the college, owing to certain unfavorable conditions, definite work for the Master was not neglected and in Bible classes, chapel exercises and Y. M. C. A. meetings religious instruction was brought to bear on the student body and the highest ideals of life and character were impressed upon them. It is our purpose to make K. W. C. more and more a distinctively Christian institution.

At the last session of our Conference it was reported that $15,000 had been raised to meet Mr. Carnegie's proposition with reference to a $30,000 library for K. W. C. Of the amount secured Mr. Carnegie rejected $8,200, because it had not been secured specifically for library. Mr. Carnegie very kindly granted an extension of time to raise this amount. The Board of Education requested the president of the college to raise the desired amount, and he is to be congratulated that he has secured the full amount, by his untiring efforts, in the face of the greatest obstacles and that without making a single public appeal. The doxology is in order. This is a great achievement.

All subscriptions and notes are now due. It is important that payments be made promptly so as not to delay the consummation of this great enterprise.

At its last meeting (Sept. 5) the Board took under advisement the proposition to erect a dormitory for girls. We need to provide for the girls of our Conference who desire to be educated in a first-class co-educational institution. We should provide for Methodist girls, who for the lack of such provision are now attending, or may attend, the State institution or other denominational colleges. There is no desire to conflict or in any way to interfere with the female schools located in the Conference.

Our Conference Ministerial Loan Fund has been depleted by numerous applications for assistance. God calls poor boys to prepare for the ministry. It is ours to help them get ready for the work.

As a college endowment is essential to efficient service, we need to be thoroughly interested in the increase of our endowment fund. We note with pleasure the increase in collections for Conference education, yet the collections falls short of what they should be. There is no more important interest among us.

J. R. SAVAGE, Sec., pro. tem.

JNO. R. DEERING, Pres.

Dr. J. W. Repass, president of Logan Female College, has given the Board and the Conference a courteous call and the Board gave him a cordial welcome. Logan College is the Louisville Conference college for girls, as Kentucky Wesleyan is the only college owned and controlled by the Conference.

The Louisville Conference at its regular session and on recommendation of its Conference Board of Education, has voted regular endorsement of Kentucky Wesleyan College and given opportunity for our president to come before the Conference in the interest of our college and in view of the farther fact that it has sent quite a number of students to the Wesleyan in recent years, and recommends the graduates of their training school to attend our college. We therefore hope our Conference will reciprocate and extend to Dr. Repass the same courtesy the Louisville Conference extends to the president of our college.

JNO. R. DEERING.

J. R. SAVAGE, Sec., pro. tem.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT.

Your Committee begs leave to submit the following report:

We reassert the admirable adaptability of the Epworth League as an institution, to the deepest culture, holiest character, and largest usefulness of youth in its immortal powers and possibilities. We regret, whatever the cause, the limited utilization of an organization so fitted to the cultivation of heart, and head and hand for the wise expenditure of youthful energies and activities.

Careful consideration has been given to the report of the General Secretary. We are glad to echo the note he sounds that "There is much in present aspects of Epworth League work that affords encouragement." We share with our leaders' desire for the best interests of the young people and concur in all recommendations thereto.

We rejoice in the success attendant upon the work of the Epworth League within the bounds of our beloved Conference. The last annual meeting at Cynthiana was especially gratifying in attendance, interest, and results. The definite and intelligent consecration of two young men for the ministry, and three young women for missionary work was fruitage that gladdened our hearts. We vow allegiance to our leaders—connectional and conference—in all legitimate efforts to extend and establish the kingdom of God through the channel of the League. Therefore, be it resolved:

1. That we co-operate in the matter of "chiefest importance," viz., the recruiting of the League in chapters, and membership by the use of "The One-By-One Campaign" method.

2. That because of pressing need, we support and assist in collecting the amount due the Central Office from our Conference on last year's account using as suggested the month of October for this purpose, led by the members of the Epworth League Board.

3. That we endeavor to conform to the schedule of dates for summer conferences prepared by the General Board by holding our Annual Epworth League Conference if possible on the date suggested, June 16-19, 1913.

4. That we observe Rally Day the fifth Sunday in this month or as near thereto as possible, taking a collection, and sending one dollar ($1) to the Central Office toward a Junior Superintendent Fund, and retaining the remainder in the local treasury as per action of the Annual Epworth League Conference.

5. That Anniversary Day be observed the first Sunday in May, or as near as possible to that date; take a collection, and send half of the proceeds to the Central Office and the other half to the Treasurer of the Kentucky Annual Epworth League Conference, and that we work to the budget plan as a substitute for the ten-cent assessment according to suggestion from the General Board.

6. That all leagues make careful and complete reports to general and conference officers.

7. That we commend the Era reduced in price; changed from a weekly to a monthly in magazine form, and with varied features of excellence, and urge every minister and leaguer to become a subscriber thereby keeping in sympathetic, intelligent, and enthusiastic touch with the young people and their work.

8. That we deplore the meagreness of Junior League work, and that we co-operate, with largest expectation, in the work under such a qualified leader as our recently elected president, Mr. H. G. Price.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. CRUTCHFIELD, Chairman.

J. W. CRATES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

During the year your Sunday School Board has been actively promoting the interests of the Sunday School throughout the Conference.

By the co-operation of our Presiding Elders we have been able to hold institutes in five of our districts. These institutes, which were schools of methods, were well attended and under the able instruction of our helpers genuine interest was aroused.

We have furnished literature to the few schools unable to provide for same and have tried to organize a Sunday School in every church in the Conference.

It is a joy to report an increase in the Children's Day collections and the number of schools and scholars.

We note that with very few exceptions our schools use our own splendid literature and we gather from the report of our Sunday School Editor that there has been an increase in the circulation of same, especially in "The Adult Student" and "Graded Lessons." We urge the use of "The Sunday School Magazine" for our teachers and "The Adult Student" for all members of adult classes and recommend that all schools provide a reference library for their teachers.

During the year the scope of the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department has been extended to include the senior and intermediate departments, and we earnestly recommend that our pastors and superintendents take up the organized Bible work in all of its departments.

We must give more attention to Teacher Training Classes and Teachers' Meetings if we expect to have a well equipped corps of Sunday School workers.

Our General Sunday School Board has adopted a standard of excellence containing the following ten points:

1. Cradle Roll.
2. Home Department.
3. Wesley Adult Bible Class.
4. Teacher Training Class or Students.
5. Graded Instruction or Use of Our Own Literature.
6. Missionary Instruction and Offering.
7. Definite Decision for Christ Urged.
8. Annual Observance of Children's Day.
9. Good Records.
10. A Session Every Sunday in the Year.

Our schools ought to adopt and strive to reach this standard.

It is high time that our preachers and church builders recognize the need of buildings suited for Sunday School work. Our General Church Extension Board is asking each of our Sunday Schools to use the Birth Day Jar, (which is furnished free) and give to them the money thus collected for establishing a Sunday School Loan Fund, which is to be used in aiding our people to make ample provision for the Sunday Schools in all churches to be built or repaired. And in order to help plan such structures the General Church Extension Board agrees to furnish free the plans necessary.

We desire to ask your co-operation in securing a Field Secretary as soon as we can find the man and secure the funds.

Resolved, That the first night of the next Annual Session be set apart for the Sunday School anniversary.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. GREER, Chairman,

G. D. PRENTISS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

Through a misunderstanding no assessment was made last year for the American Bible Society, but we are glad to report that $129.95 were collected for the Society. Since no one denomination has the ability or facilities for translating the Scriptures into the various languages of the countries where missionary operations are carried on; and since no missionary work can be prosecuted successfully without the Bible in the native language of the people, the American Bible Society is absolutely essential to the success of missionary work.

J. W. HARRIS, Treasurer,

S. H. POLLITT, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We, the Committee on Books and Periodicals, have had the exhibit of the Publishing House before us and are glad to note many signs of progress.

The Methodist Review maintains its high standard and yields a revenue to the house. This Review is one of the best religious magazines extant and should be in the hands of all intelligent Methodists, especially our pastors.

We regret to note that the Epworth Era has been a source of loss to the Publishing House but we heartily approve the change to the magazine form and hope that under the new regime a loss will not occur again. The first copy in the latter form came out recently and is highly satisfactory in every way.

We are gratified that the house had $10,000.00 net proceeds to appropriate to our superannuates.

Our Sunday School literature continues to hold to its high standard of excellence. It continues to be the largest source of revenue.

The house has published, during the year, quite a number of excellent books and we earnestly hope for an increase of their circulation among our people.

The General Organ of our church deserves better support than it has had in our Conference. It compares with other great papers of its class with credit to itself and honor to Southern Methodism. Its material, its print, its arrangement and especially its matter are all that could be desired.

Under the able management of the present efficient editors, the Central Methodist-Advocate is better than ever before. Its editorials are sane, sound and evangelical; its news of the field, more fresh and plentiful; its exchange selections are apt and its advertisements clean. The editor of the Central Methodist-Advocate makes through us to the Conference some very interesting suggestions regarding its more thorough circulation. The matter of putting a copy of the latter paper into every church home was unanimously referred to this committee for consideration. We have had full discussion of the matter with the two papers involved and we report that, believing as we do in the great benefits to be derived from the visit of our church papers into all of our homes, we recommend that the presiding elder and pastors take the matter up early in the conference year and seek the co-operation of the official members of the charges in putting the Conference Organ into every home as soon as possible and also to secure as many subscribers for the General Organ as possible especially to the extent of putting the Christian Advocate into the hands of every pastor and lay official. We cannot suggest a definite plan for making the canvass that would be practicable in all places, but the editors and business managers of the Central Methodist-Advocate have several different methods that have been successfully used and these plans will be sent on application. The owners of the Central Methodist-Advocate propose to make a reduction of the price to one dollar a year to each subscriber when they can be officially assured that every family in any church will have either the Christian Advocate or the Central Methodist-Advocate. The managers of the Christian Advocate will at an early date communicate with the pastors of this Conference, giving them information as to what special rate can be offered on the General Organ. We believe this plan and proposition will meet with favor among our people, and that the Conference should adopt it and put it into operation at the very earliest date practicable.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. PEEPLES, Chairman.

L. ROBINSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance submits the following report:

We believe that the liquor curse is the most gigantic evil with which we have to contend today.

It strikes at the church, the home, the school, and at everything that is sacred and good in this great country of ours.

We note with great pleasure the progress that is being made toward the abolition of this great evil.

And whereas the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has been aggressive and in the front rank of the battle line.

And whereas she has by her actions and utterances condemned this great enemy. Therefore be it resolved,

First, That we encourage every legitimate and commendable organization having for its end the abolition of the liquor traffic.

Second, That we most heartily commend the Governor of our State, the President of the Senate, the speaker of the House, and all Senators and Representatives who worked for and voted for the extension of the County Unit Bill.

Third, That we commend the Anti-Saloon League for its splendid work, and we pledge ourselves to support the League, and to co-operate with it in its great work, and that we especially commend the League for the efficient and effective work it did in securing the passage of the County Unit Bill, and that we co-operate with the League, and all other commendable organizations in the effort to secure the passage of the Kenyon Shepherd Inter-State Liquor Shipment Bill.

Fourth, That we deplore the fact that in many counties and cities where the saloons have been voted out by large majorities, that the same counties and cities have at the next election of State, county and city officers, elected whisky men and men who have no regard for the enforcement of the law.

Fifth, That we urge our people to vote for men who favor the abolition of the liquor curse and for men who will enforce the law, regardless of their political affiliations.

Sixth, That we especially commend Dr. N. A. Palmer, State Superintendent Anti-Saloon League, for his efficient and effective work.

Seventh, We recommend that B. C. Horton, M. S. Clark, W. E. Arnold, Jas. T. Morgan, and W. W. Ball, be appointed trustees of the Anti-Saloon League in Kentucky.

Recognizing the use of tobacco as a needless self-indulgence, filthy in its nature, and in most cases hurtful to mind, body and soul, and therefore wholly indefensible, we urgently advise and respectfully request the preachers of the Kentucky Conference to wholly desist from the use of tobacco and in this respect make themselves safe examples for our young people and all other classes of people to follow.

We rejoice in the fact that not one of the class admitted into the Conference at this session is a user of tobacco.

C. C. FISHER, Chairman.

C. A. SMITH, Secretary.

REPORT OF ORPHANS' HOME COMMITTEE

We, your Committee on Orphans' Home, submit the following report:

Whereas, this is a day of distinctive humanitarian movements which classify their philanthropy under brotherhoods, fraternities and State institutions which propose to do work that should be done by the church, and when we take into consideration the rivalry and competition that we incur from their excellent equipment and astounding success, we feel that we should call the attention of the church to our duty to our own institution under the wise supervision of our agent, E. S. Boswell.

We do not recommend a crusade against any institution purposed with the amelioration of suffering and unfortunate humanity, but we do feel that their success should animate the church with increased effort, even as they gathered their inspiration from the church and are the immediate result of a quickened moral fiber which was made possible by this great institution of God. We call attention to the fact, that the work of the church should cover every phase of need common to man and especially institutions which care for the unfortunate lambs of the Christian flock.

Further, we feel that the church should occupy a place in the hearts of our people that should call forth the loyal support and co-operation of the individual member commensurate with any demand that any institution should be able to reasonably make upon its adherents. While we recognize the importance of the many claims which are made upon our pastors, we feel that none should diminish the claims and importance of the Orphans' Home.

It was gratifying to the committee to learn, through our most efficient agent, of the material success of the past year. Provisions have been made for the installation of a new laundry plant with modern fixtures and equipment costing $4,000, and by the generosity of kind friends several beds have been endowed during the past year.

The fifth Sunday collections have been the best in the history of this splendid movement. The average contribution being $2.89 per school, hence aggregating the significant sum of $2,920.93.

We recommend that each pastor call the attention of his people to this important matter and further, that the superintendent see that the fifth Sunday collections be promptly reported to our agent, E. S. Boswell, at Louisville, Ky. We further recommend that Miss Laura Y. Nadal be reappointed matron and E. S. Boswell agent of our Home for the incoming year.

Respectfully submitted,

E. K. PIKE, Chairman,

R. B. WILSON, Secretary.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance begs leave to submit the following report:

We hold that the Sabbath, ordained in Eden, and reaffirmed at Sinai, is still in full force. God gave us the Sabbath because both our spiritual and physical natures demand it. "The Sabbath was made for man." He who gave us the Sabbath, gave rules concerning its observance, and the blessings it was designed to give can be secured, only by keeping the day as God has appointed. God expects his people to obey His laws. He expects them to "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy." We cannot expect the world to keep the Sabbath Day holy as long as the church desecrates the sacred day. "Ye are the light of the world." "Judgment must begin at the House of God." The Continental Sabbath that today disgraces and curses our land is the result of laxity in the so-called Christian home of our country. "The axe must be laid at the root of the tree" if this curse is to be removed. We cannot have a Christian nation without a Christian Sabbath, and we cannot have a Christian Sabbath except through the teaching and practice of the church. A fearless minister and a pure church are the greatest bulwarks of human rights. God sent his judgments upon the Jews, because they did not keep the Sabbath. It is because the church does not "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy," that 300,000 of our sons, brothers and husbands are compelled to labor on railroads every Sabbath day. If no church members rode on Sunday trains there would be none. The most dangerous enemy to Christianity are those who profess to be Christians, yet do not live up to their professions. There is no surer sign of decadent piety, than Sabbath desecration. The home that converts the Sabbath into a day of feasting and pleasure seeking is not a Christian home. Ichabod is written on its walls. The reformation we so much need must begin in the pulpit. God's prophets were the reformers of the Jews. If John Wesley could restore the Sabbath to England the Methodist ministry can restore the Sabbath to the United States. The church must be purified from this great sin. Our people must be brought to repentance before God forgives them.

We note with profound thanksgiving the order of the Postmaster General, which to a large degree, reduces the work in the postoffices of our large cities. God will work wonders in the land if His people will obey Him. If we would have wholesome Sunday laws, we must demand of those who ask our suffrage to give them to us. If we would have our Sunday laws enforced we must elect men to office, who are pledged to do this work. The church must first make sentiment, and then crystalize it into law and then see that the laws are enforced. A holy church is God's chosen instrument for saving the world.

J. L. WEST, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGES AND FURNISHING PARSONAGES.

The committee desire to submit the following report:

The past year has marked decided and substantial progress in furnishing parsonages.

The following charges have ordered new furniture the past year, viz.: Morehead, Scott St., Jackson, Perryville, Epworth, West Liberty, Hindman, Somerset, and Danville. We congratulate these charges on the good work they have done.

We again call attention to the fact that we do not want cast-off, second-hand furniture which nobody can use. The only furniture recommended is the heavy kitchen, dining room and bed room furnishings.

We still deplore the fact that there is only one district parsonage in our Conference, viz., Covington, located at Fort Thomas; however, we are glad to say that Danville District Conference appointed trustees and a committee to provide a parsonage for the presiding elder.

Some similar steps were taken by the Frankfort and Lexington Districts. We find it is necessary for a conscience to be aroused among the people for the necessity of these homes. We recommend the following as the committee for next year: J. R. Savage, R. D. Best, M. S. Clark, Walter Worthington, Alfred Combs, W. F. Wyatt, B. J. Durham, G. L. Pollitt, C. K. Dickey, W. S. Hayes, J. M. Mathews, H. H. Smith, W. B. Ragan, J. B. Howe, M. T. Chandler.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee on District Conference Records submit the following report:

Five records were submitted to the committee for examination—Maysville, Danville, Shelbyville, Covington and Lexington. These records are in good condition. They are transcribed in a neat legible hand. We noted no faulty grammar nor bad spelling. We found little or nothing to criticize. We were not disposed to criticize for the sake of criticizing.

The Maysville record, otherwise the best perhaps presented, had the printed programme prepared by the P. E., and adopted by the Conference, pasted in the book as a part of the record, a thing unnecessary, but if inserted should have been put in more permanent form.

The Covington record was signed by two secretaries, an unusual thing.

A. REDD, Chairman,
J. M. MATHEWS, Secretary.

REPORT OF PREACHER'S AID SOCIETY.

The Board of Managers of the Preacher's Aid Society submit the following report:

A joint meeting of the committee appointed by the Conference to secure homes for superannuated preachers and the Investment Committee of this Board was held in Lexington, Ky., to consider the best methods of co-operating in this work. After careful consideration it was agreed that the work of the committee be correlated with the work of the Preachers' Aid Society and a joint committee appointed to take such steps as were necessary to effect this correlation.

We therefore offer the following resolution:

1. That the committee appointed to secure homes for superannuated preachers be hereafter included in the Board of Managers of the Preachers' Aid Society as a committee of said Board.

2. That the Preachers' Aid Society be directed to amend its constitution so as to include the work contemplated by said Committee on Homes for Superannuates and provide for the increase of the Board of Managers from fifteen to nineteen members, five of whom shall be designated by the Board of Managers of the Preacher's Aid Society as a Committee on Homes for Superannuate Preachers.
